On January 9, 2020, the Defendant, having previously been found in violation of his Supervised Release, a status that began September 3, 2015, appeared in open Court for final disposition. On the aforesaid January 9, 2020, he admitted to two additional allegations set forth against him in a Petition directing him to show cause why that status should not be revoked. He was once again found in violation of Supervised Release.

Pursuant to the record made on January 9, 2020, this Court, although finding Defendant in violation of his Supervised Release, declined to revoke him; rather, he was continued on his period of Supervised Release until termination.

Following the above, the Defendant was orally explained his right of appeal and he orally indicated an understanding of same.

Neither counsel for the government nor for the Defendant had any procedural or substantive objections to this Court's sentence.

The captioned cause remains terminated upon the docket records of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division, at Dayton.
